

WELCOME TO TELEHEALTH

Your waiting room is ready.

Congratulations! Your choice to use Telehealth Services will increase your access to quality healthcare and make for a healthier you.

It's simple to connect and see your healthcare provider from anywhere. All you need is a computer with a webcam (most computers already come with one installed) or a smart phone, and a connection to the Internet. Follow these easy steps to check in for your appointment at Doxy.me, a secure and private telehealth website.

1

To enter your provider's virtual "waiting room," click on the personalized link sent to you from your provider's office. (E.g. www.searhc.doxy.me)

No need to download apps, and the service is free.

2

Click "allow" so Doxy.me can access your computer camera and microphone

Would you like to share camera and microphone with Doxy.me?
